This document presents a comprehensive implementation review of the administration of the Executive Governor of Kano State, His Excellency Alhaji Abba Kabir Yusuf, covering his second year in office from June 2023 to June 2025. The report assesses 16 key sectors, detailing campaign promises, projects executed, their status (completed, ongoing, or planned), and a calculated weighted score that reflects the level of delivery and impact.

Overall Highlights

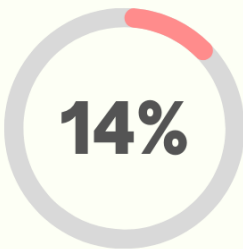

- Out of 232 total promises tracked, 161 have been completed, 38 are ongoing, and 33 are in the planning phase, resulting in an overall weighted score of about 81.1%.
- Sectors such as Human Capital Development (100%), Revenue Generation (95.5%), Civil Service and Local Government Reforms (95.3%), Health (94.6%), and Environment (93.8%) recorded the highest delivery rates.
- Key focus areas included education, health, infrastructure, agriculture, youth empowerment, environmental reform, governance transparency, and institutional restructuring.

Achievements

The sectors below show a strong fulfillment of promises with high weighted scores (above 80%).

1] Human Capital Development (100.0%)

All 7 promises have been fully completed — the only sector with a perfect score. This suggests high efficiency and prioritization in this area.

2] Revenue Generation (95.5%)

10 out of 11 promises have been completed. Strong performance here may indicate improved fiscal responsibility or successful internal revenue strategies.

3] Civil Service and Local Government Reforms (95.3%)

Reform-oriented sectors often lag, but this one shows significant progress — 15 of 16 projects completed, indicating administrative efficiency.

4] Health (94.6%)

26 out of 28 promises completed. This strong score reflects serious attention to healthcare delivery due to pressing public health needs.

5] Environment (93.8%)

11 of 12 completed. A commendable result reflecting climate or sanitation efforts.

6] Infrastructure (83.9%)

10 of 14 campaign promises have been completed, with 4 either ongoing or planned. While progress is strong, the remaining projects highlight areas that still need attention to fully realize infrastructure goals.

7] Security (83.9%)

Reasonably high performance with 10 out of 14 completed. This suggests that security issues are being tackled but not fully resolved.

8] Energy and Power (83.3%)

Though only 3 projects were promised, 2 were completed and 1 is ongoing. The score suggests meaningful execution despite the sector's small size.

9] Governance (80.0%)

11 out of 15 completed — a sign of institutional strengthening, transparency initiatives, and administrative reforms.

These sectors are mid-level performers that are making progress but still show room for improvement:

10] Agriculture (75.9%)

With 18 completed and 10 in progress or planned, this shows strategic engagement — but delivery may be staggered.

11] Water Resources (73.2%)

8 completed and 6 ongoing/planned. Access to water often requires longer timelines, which could explain moderate progress.

12] Education (72.3%)

The largest sector in terms of commitments (37), with 19 completed. While more than half are completed or ongoing, the weighted score shows moderate success — a sign of effort but also scale-related challenges.

13] Housing (70.0%)

2 out of 5 completed; a small but active sector.

14] Youth and Sports Development (68.8%)

Mixed outcomes — 6 completed, 3 ongoing, 3 still in planning. Potentially affected by budget prioritization or implementation hurdles.

15] Commerce and Industry (65.9%)

5 out of 11 completed. Investment and industrial policies may be slower due to economic or partnership factors.

Sectors identified as low performers have shown poor or limited progress, necessitating urgent attention, thus:

16] Transportation (50.0%)

This is the weakest performer: only 1 completed, 2 ongoing, and 2 planned out of 5 promises. This could point to funding issues, complex logistics, or underprioritization.

Recommendations

1. Fast-Track Transportation & Infrastructure: Mobilize funds and partnerships to resolve delays in these foundational sectors.
2. Strengthen Project Monitoring: Especially in mid-level sectors like Youth Development and Commerce, to ensure ongoing projects are completed.
3. Maintain Momentum in High-Performing Areas: Prevent complacency and use success stories as benchmarks for lagging sectors.
4. Reevaluate Planned Projects: For sectors with many “planned” initiatives, reassess feasibility, funding, and timeline alignment.

The review reflects a data-driven, transparent, and citizen-focused approach to governance. It not only benchmarks achievements against campaign promises but also provides a roadmap for further implementation and improvement. The administration's commitment to participatory development, fiscal discipline, service delivery, and infrastructure modernization is clearly evidenced in this second-year performance report.
